Lydia Quixano Pérez runs a bookstore in Acapulco. Forced to flee from the drug cartels, Lydia and eight-year-old Luca are instantly transformed into migrants, riding “la bestia” north toward the United States. This suspenseful page-turner is also a rare exploration into the inner hearts of desperate migrants.

JUNE 9
2-3:30 PM
Anxious People
by Fredrik
Backman

Viewing an apartment normally doesn't turn into a life-or-death situation, but this particular open house becomes just that when a bank robber bursts in and takes everyone in the apartment hostage. As the pressure mounts, the eight strangers begin slowly opening up to one another and reveal long-hidden truths.

In December 1972, Jean McConville was dragged from her Belfast home by masked intruders, her children clinging to her legs. They never saw her again. Her abduction was one of the most notorious episodes of the vicious conflict known as The Troubles.
