

Tuesday Book Club: Spring 2021

(usually 3rd Tuesday at 2 p.m.)

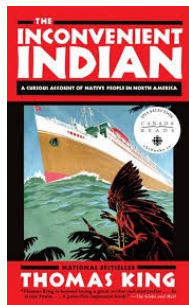

APRIL 20

2-3:30 PM

My Brilliant Friend

by Elena Ferrante

Beginning in the 1950s Elena and Lila grow up in Naples, Italy, mirroring two different aspects of their nation. A meticulous portrait of a friendship and a nation, written in Ferrante's uniquely intense style.

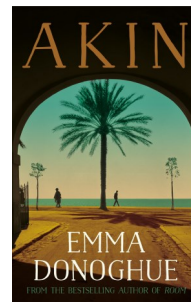

MAY 18

2-3:30 PM

The Inconvenient Indian: a curious account of Native People in North America

by Thomas King

In this award-winning bestseller and modern classic, Thomas King tells the curiously circular tale of the relationship between non-Native and Indigenous people in the centuries since the two first encountered each other. Eye-opening, provocative, thought-provoking, sprinkled with King's unique wry sense of humour.

JUNE 15

2-3:30 PM

Akin

by Emma Donoghue

A retired New York professor's life is thrown into chaos when he takes his great-nephew to the French Riviera, in hopes of uncovering his own mother's wartime secrets. A brilliant tale of love, loss and family, written with tenderness and psychological intensity. Both funny and heart-wrenching.